

XVI Congress
13th - 16th June 2010
VENUE: EAST LONDON INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE CENTRE (ICC)
22 ESPLANADE ROAD, QUIGNEY, EAST LONDON

DETAILED PROGRAMME

Sunday 13th June, 2010
13h00-15h00	Registration	ICC Foyer
15h00-17h30	OPENING	ICC Auditorium
	Recognitions:	Penny Jaffray, Chair, LOC, University of Fort Hare
	Chair:	Dr. Saleem Badat, Vice -Chancellor, Rhodes University
	Special Guest:	Prof.Marcus Malusi Balintulo, Vice-Chancellor, WSU
	Welcome:	Her Worship, Ms Zukisa Faku, Executive Mayor, Buffalo City
	Welcome Address (Chief Host):	Dr Mvuyo Tom, Vice Chancellor, University of Fort Hare
	Presidential Address:	Dr Wilson Akpan, President, South African Sociological Association
	Keynote address:	Professor Ishwar Modi, University of Rajasthan, India, President, ISA Research Committee on Leisure Title: Leisure, Sport and Development: Emerging Challenges
	Briefing:	Penny Jaffray, Chair, LOC, University of Fort Hare
18h00-20h30	Mayoral Reception:	East London City Hall

Monday 14th June, 2010

08h00-10h00	PLENARY SESSION 1: Scoring at the grassroots: Sports, Recreation and Mega events ICC Auditorium Chair:
	1	Professor Scarlett Cornelissen, University of Stellenbosch, Political Sciences Department Title: Proprietors and stakeholders: The political economy of sport mega-events and their developmental legacies
	2	Professor Sufian Bugurura, UNISA, School of Law Title: Ayoba!!!! Say I was there in 2010! Is FIFA-SAFA alliance a poverty alleviation initiative?
	3	Professor Steven Jackson, University of Otago, President, ISA's RC on Sport, New Zealand Title: Sport Mega Events Between the Global &amp; The Local: Lessons for 2011 Rugby World Cup
10h00-10h30	Tea / coffee
10h30-12h30	SPLIT SESSION 1: A – G
10h30-12h30	1: A	Environmental and natural resources (Room No. 2) Theme: Constructions and deconstructions of sustainability and vulnerability Chair: Marie-Louise McDermott, Edith Cowan University
	1	Willice O. Abuya and Wilson Akpan (University of Fort Hare): What's in a coconut? An ethnoecological analysis of mining, social displacement and development in rural Kenya
	2	Emma Vink (University of Stellenbosch): Environmentally-friendly wine: Exploring the relationship between environment and economic concerns
	3	Christopher Phiri (World Vision, South Africa) and Wilson Akpan (University of Fort Hare): Unjust sustainability? Rural development and the clash of economics, ecology and culture
10h30-12h30	1: B	Urban sociology (Room No. 3) Theme: Urban opportunities and challenges: a place in the city Chair: Liela Groenewald, University of Johannesburg
	1	Letitia Smuts (University of Johannesburg): Lesbian identities and social space: the urban rural experience
	2	Pragna Rugunanan (University of Johannesburg): New migrant communities: Pakistani and Bangladeshi migrants views on work/life balance in South Africa
	3	Kristen Kornienko (University of Witwatersrand): An argument to stay: voices from two young neighbourhoods in Ekurhuleni
	4	Marie Huchzermeyer (University of Witwatersrand): The policy context for informal settlements: competitiveness, exclusive governance and a right to the city
10h30-12h30	1: C	Race, ethnicity and class (Room No. 4) Theme: Racism and xenophobia in South Africa Chair: Joshua Kirshner, University of Johannesburg
	1	Abraham Serote (University of Witwatersrand): 'I don't know what you guys are talking about': the case of colour-blind blacks in a predominantly white

		Faculty of Health in South Africa
	2	Vusumzi Duma (University of Fort Hare): “All African immigrants are welcome in South Africa, but some are more welcome than others” . Explaining the divergent public opinion towards African immigrants and African immigration in South Africa
	3	Wendy Isaacs-Martin (Nelson Mandela M. University): The instrumentalist motive and the scapegoat: How important was the role of leadership in the xenophobic experience in South Africa?
10h30-12h30	1: D	Media, culture and society (Room No. 5) Theme: Space, Spectacle &amp; Sports: Cultures of the Mega-Event Chair: Lloyd Hill, University of Stellenbosch
	1	Jaeho Kang (The New School): Global sporting events as media spectacles: The FIFA world cup in the age of new media
	2	Jeesson Hong (University of Manchester): Media and space at the Beijing Olympics and Shanghai Expo
	3	Tazneem Wentzel (University of Stellenbosch): The city with soul: Khoema rhythms, moppies, minstrels, and meta-events in Cape Town
10h30-12h30	1: E	Economic and industrial sociology (Room No. 6) Theme: Working mega events, the case of the 2010 World Cup Chair: Khayaat Fakier, University of the Witwatersrand
	1	Crispen Chinguno (University of the Witwatersrand): FIFA 2010 World Cup: an opportunity for trade union revitalization?
	2	Splagchna Chikarara (University of Pretoria): The after life: job creation/losses in the construction industry after the World Cup?
	3	Freek Cronje (North West University), David van Wyk (North West University), Doret Botha (North West University): FIFA, ‘Afrophobia’, Brand imperialism and the informal sector in Johannesburg
10h30-12h30	1: F	Development (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Sports and Gender Chair: Sultan Khan, University of KwaZulu Natal
	1	Tshegofatso Setilo (University of Free state) and Reic Olehile (University of Free State): Women sports in Africa
	2	Federico Todeschini (Universitat Pompeu Fabra): The effect of football on unwanted pregnancies
	3	Theodore Petrus (Nelson Mandela M. University): To win by any means necessary: Witchcraft and magic beliefs as anthropological issues in sport development
	4	Cassandra Clark (University of Johannesburg): Women in South African football: Voices from the ground around the FIFA 2010 World Cup
10h30-12h30	1: G	Rural sociology (Room No. 7) Theme: Chair: Phakiso Mokhahlane
	1	Lerato Van Averbeke (University of Pretoria): Ndzindi irrigation scheme
	2	Thembeke Ngcebetha (University of Fort Hare) and Ntombekhaya Somfongo: Gender development and traditional leadership in South Africa: Tension between democracy and custom

	3	Noel Chellan : Energy trends in rural South Africa- A case study of the Mnweni rural area in the Province of the KwaZulu Natal
12h30-13h30	Lunch	HoDs meeting (Room No. TBA) Students meeting (Room No. TBA )
13h30-15h15	SPLIT SESSION 2: A – G
	2: A	Environmental and natural resources (Room No. 2) Theme: Ecological resources, development and socio-cultural memories Chair: Adeyinka Bankole, Redeemers University
	1	Monty Roodt ( Rhodes University ): Marine resource management in coastal communities: Unpacking co-management implementation in the Tshani-Mankosi area in the former Transkei Bantustan
	2	Ikechukwu Umejesi (University of Fort Hare) and Wilson Akpan (University of Fort Hare): Re-thinking “compensational justice “: How history shapes grievance construction in deprived, resource-rich communities
	3	Marie-Louise McDermott (Edith Cowan University): Glocal identities and ocean baths
	4	Sonwabile C. Mnwana (University of Fort Hare) and Wilson Akpan (University of Fort Hare): The character and contradictions of right-based development in South Africa’s platinum mining communities
13h30-15h15	2: B	Urban sociology (Room No. 3) Theme: Urban opportunities and challenges: education, sport, development Chair: Pragna Rugunanan, University of Johannesburg
	1	Jeesoon Hong (Manchester University): Bodyscape, cityscape: urban transformation of Beijing and the changing leisure experiences after the Beijing Olympics
	2	Christopher Haferburg (University of Erlangen): Mega-Events and urban development in the Global South- anything to gain for South Africa’s host cities?
	3	Philani Moyo (University of Fort Hare): Urban agriculture and poverty reduction in post-crisis, reconstructing and stabilizing Zimbabwe: prospects and obstacles
	4	Vangile Bingma (University of Pretoria): Male early high school leaving in Orange Farm Township: a hidden epidemic
	5	Cheryl Stevens (University of Witwatersrand): Soccer, soaps and security: ethnographic vignettes themed along experiences in and around Johannesburg’s inner-city
13h30-15h15	2: C	Race ,ethnicity and class (Room No. 4) Theme: The politics of inclusion, representation and ideology Chair: Marcelle Dawson, University of Johannesburg
	1	Shireen Ally (University of Witwatersrand): Heroic pioneers, occluded ‘natives’ and the virgin wild: Representations of colonial encounter in the (Southeastern Transvaal) Lowveld
	2	Joshua D. Kirshner (University of Johannesburg) and Comfort Phokela (University of Johannesburg): The politics of inclusion in Khutsong, Gauteng
	3	Mamadi Matlhako (State University of New York) and Margaret Sithole (State University of New York): Shifting ideologies: Race , Class and the politics of

		change in South Africa and the United States
13h30-15h15	2: D	Media, culture and society (Room No. 5) Theme: Sporting cultures and the Social: Discursive and embodied practices Chair: Irma du Plessis, University of Witwatersrand
	1	Sonja Narunsky-Laden (University of Johannesburg): In the gym and on the golf course: Recreational sports as 'bodily work' in post-transitional South Africa
	2	Lloyd Hill (University of Stellenbosch): Language games? Reflections on the boundary between sport and leisure
	3	Kathleen McDougall (University of Stellenbosch): Mediated 'cultural' disease: Healing, rugby and hypertension cardiomyopathy
	4	Cobi Labuscagne (University of Witwatersrand): Cultures of sponsorship: The Joburg Art Fair
13h30-15h15	2: E	Economic and industrial sociology (Room No. 6) Theme: Green jobs, Co-ops and Migration Chair: Freek Cronje, North West University
	1	Jacklyn Cock and Khayaat Fakier (University of the Witwatersrand): The potential of decent green jobs in relation to environmental protection and job creation in South Africa
	2	Tapiwa Chagonda (University of Johannesburg): The Unmaking of the working class? The response of the working class in Harare to hyperinflation and the political crisis : 1997 – 2009
	3	Tendai Patience Motsi (University of Pretoria): Perceptions of Zimbabwean university students on 'returning home' and 'rebuilding the economy': An exploratory study in Pretoria, South Africa
	4	Oliver Nathan (University of the Witwatersrand): What is the role of local government and municipalities in creating an enabling environment for worker cooperatives in the Eastern Cape and Gauteng?
13h30-15h15	2: F	Development (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Sport and development Chair: Freek Cronje
	1	Roseline Munwang'o Achieng', (Monash - South Africa): Sports: A Development Paradigm?
	2	Tebogo Lobaka( University of the Free State): Marxist views on sports, leisure and development in the 21st century.
	3	Freek Cronjé (University of North-West) and David van Wyk (University of the North-West): Limitations of CSR Regulation and Reporting.
	4	Rejoice Shumba (University of Johannesburg): Social change makers: An analysis of two social entrepreneurs in South Africa and their social entrepreneurial ventures
13h30-15h15	2: G	Religion (Room No. 7) Theme: Religion in Social Context Chair: Lloyd Hill, University of Stellenbosch
	1	Rashid Begg (University of Stellenbosch): In Search of the Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism: The case of the Afrianders, 1652-1795.
	2	Shu'eib Hassen: (University of Stellenbosch): Charismatic Christianity on Third Class Train Carriages in Cape Town

	3	Jacques Human ( University of Stellenbosch): Reality, Knowledge and Meaning: A research Project Investigating the Social Construction of Reality and Meaning in life of Irreligious Individual
15h15-15h45	Tea / coffee
15h45-17h30	SPLIT SESSION 3: A – G
	3: A	Environmental and natural resources (Room No. 2) Theme: State and corporate responses to ecological malaise Chair: Wilson Akpan (University of Fort Hare)
	1	Jacklyn Cock (University of the Witwatersrand): “Green Capitalism”: capital’s response to the ecological crisis
	2	Uwafiokun Idemudia (York University): Government and corporate social responsibility in the rentier Nigerian context: Facilitating or inhibiting?
	3	Lennox Olivier (University of Stellenbosch): Contesting Cape nature: RasTafari medicinal practices, conservation authorities and the quandary of formal recognition
15h45-17h30	3: B	Political and law (Room No. 3) Theme: Chair: Ian Liebenberg
	1	Wendy Isaacs-Martin (Nelson Mandela M. University): Nationalisation of the populace: A reflection on a diverse South Africa
	2	Bernard Dubbeld (Stellenbosch University): The form of rural governance in post-apartheid KZN: exploring the limits of governmentality
	3	Musawenkosi Malabela (University of Witwatersrand): “The people shall speak”? The Ward system and constrained participatory democracy: A case study of Chochocho, Mpumalanga
	4	Johan Zaaiman (North-West University): Local power, space and change
15h45-17h30	3: C	Race , ethnicity and class (Room No. 4) Theme: Race, Identity, Sport and Leisure: Constructing ethnic solidarity or continuing marginalization? Chair: Shireen Ally, University of the Witwatersrand
	1	Mariann Vaczi (University of Nevada): “Athletic, Always With You”: The socio-cultural implications of a unique recruiting philosophy
	2	Emanuel Mayeza (University of KwaZulu-Natal): A comparative study of leisure and recreational time activities amongst third year on and off campus residence students at Howard College, Durban
	3	Rob Pattman (University of KwaZulu- Natal)and Deevia Bhana (University of KwaZulu-Natal): Sport, girls, trouble and humour: black and indian boys negotiating gender, race and class in a formerly single sex school in South Africa
15h45-17h30	3: D	Media, culture and society (Room No. 5) Theme: Identity &amp; social construction: Concepts and their social contestation Chair: Mokong Simon Mapadimeng, (National Arts Council of South Africa)
	1	Michelle Peens (University of Stellenbosch): Constructions of dirt amongst poor white families in Newcastle
	2	Pierre du Plessis (University of Stellenbosch): The local construction of “threat” among African foreign nationals in Stellenbosch: Exploring proximity and the narcissism of small differences

	3	Eleanor Swartz (University of Stellenbosch): The role of Afrikaans in the social identity formation of white and coloured Afrikaans-speaker
	4	Carolyn Mande Lunga (Rhodes University ): A case study of the Daily Dispatch's broken homes project and the idea of citizen engagement
15h45-17h30	3: E	Economic and industrial sociology (Room No. 6) Theme: The labour process re-considered I – the service sector Chair: Themba Masondo, University of Witwatersrand
	1	David Du Toit (University of Stellenbosch): More than smiling and waving: a case study on male petrol attendants' use of emotional labour
	2	Babalwa Magoqwana (Rhodes University and Institute of social and economic research) and Sandra Matatu (Rhodes University and Institute of social and economic research): Trade union perceptions amongst local government call-centre workers: challenges and opportunities for SAMWU
	3	Mpho Mnadi (University of Pretoria): Mobile workplace: a case study of the Mamelodi Taxi industry
	4	Mfaniseni Fana Sihlongonyane (University of Witwatersrand): Labour crossings between production and consumption in the leisure industry: The case of Newtown
15h45-17h30	3: F	Development (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Social policy Chair: Noel Chellan
	1	Jimi Adesina (Rhodes University): Sociology and the Promise of Transformative Social Policy.
	2	Sandisile Msindo (Rhodes University): Perceptions and Experiences of Child Support Recipients in Grahamstown, South Africa.
	3	Kolawole Omomowo (Rhodes University): Atypical work and social protection in post-apartheid South Africa: some thoughts about social policy imperative.
15h45-17h30	3: G	Gender studies (Room No. 7) Theme: Gender Identity Chair: Letitia Smuts, University of Johannesburg
	1	Angela Ochse (University of Pretoria): Real lesbians and real women: Lesbian discourses in the new South Africa
	2	Nomancotsho Pakade (University of Johannesburg): From the horse's mouth: Township perceptions of the black butch lesbian identity
	3	Letitia Smuts (University of Johannesburg): Coming-out in South Africa: A lesbian perspective
	4	Marizanne Grundlingh (University of Stellenbosch): Boobs and balls: Exploring issues of gender and identity among women soccer players at Stellenbosch University
	5	Manthiba Phalane : Gender, Sports and Funding: Masculinities in Sports Administration
18h00-20h00	Harold Wolpe Memorial Lecture (Open to Public) Title: Politics of Youth and Youth Politics
	ICC Auditorium

Tuesday 15th June, 2010

08h00-10h00	PLENARY SESSION 2: Sports, Identity Politics &amp; Social cohesion ICC Auditorium Chair:
	1	Claudia Martinez-Mullen, Rhodes University Title: Is Football a Free Leisure Activity? A Marxist Approach
	2	Adv Nicolas G. Kock, Institute for Social Development, University of the Western Cape Title: Sports colours Vs academic colours: A crisis of identity for the modern athlete
	3	Prof. Ashwin Desai, Department of Sociology, Rhodes University Title: TBA
10h00-10h30	Tea / coffee
10h30-12h30	SPLIT SESSION 4: A – G
	4: A	Health (Room No. 2) Theme: Getting Physical Chair:
	1	Thomas Farrar(The Africaid Trust), Doug Wilson (The Africaid Trust), Marcus McGilvray (The Africaid Trust) and Zanele Khanyile (The Africaid Trust): Winning tactics for 2010: using soccer to facilitate behavioural HIV prevention for youth with a focus on gender equality
	2	Masabata Mosoeu ( University of Free State): The importance of Health in Sports, Recreation and Development
	3	Khalema (University of Calgary), Christina Loitz (University of Calgary), Nancy Spencer-Cavaliere, (University of Calgary): Creating Inclusive Spaces for Active Living in Rural Alberta Communities: Evidence from the use of Sallis’ ecological model in the Physical Activity for All: Resources for Inclusion Project
10h30-12h30	4: B	Social movements (Room No. 3) Theme: Challenging theory and concepts in social movement studies Chair: Peter Pfaffe, University of Johannesburg
	1	Marcelle C. Dawson (University of Johannesburg): New Theoretical Insights into the Study of Social Movements: Using the Lens of ‘Southern Theory’
	2	Kgopotso Khumalo (University of Johannesburg): Conceptualising Landlessness: Views from the Landless People’s Movement
	3	Comfort Phokela (University of Johannesburg): Bottom-up Notions of Leadership: The Case of Khutsong and the Merafong Development Forum
10h30-12h30	4: C	Crime, violence and security (Room No. 4) Theme: Sport, crime and violence Chair: Jackie Cock
	1	Bukola Adeyemi and Akinyinka Akinyoade (University of Leiden): Security and sports in Africa: Trends and implications
	2	Komlan Agbedahin and Michael Drewett (Rhodes University): The Togolese national soccer team under fire in the Babinda enclave: various hypotheses
	3	Volker Eick (Freie Universitaet): Securing their profits: King football and the Lords of the Rings

10h30-12h30	4: D	Post-graduate Workshop (Room 5)
10h30-12h30	4: E	Economic and industrial sociology (Room No. 6) Theme: The labour process reconsidered II – Mining, processing and manufacturing Chair: Andries Bezuidenhout (University of the Witwatersrand)
	1	Sithembiso Bhengu (University of KwaZulu-Natal): Revisiting articulation of modes of production and capitalism and cheap labour debates in post apartheid SA
	2	Themba Masonda (University of the Witwatersrand): Worker participation in workplace restructuring in the automotive industry: a comparative study of German and South African Volkswagen plants, 1970 - 2009
	3	Olusegun O. Oladeinde (Rhodes University): Management, labour process and workers own construction of social relations of production in an oil refinery, Nigeria
	4	Paul Stewart (University of the Witwatersrand): 'Two sides of the same coin': Working time and leisure time and the struggle to reduce working hours on South African mines
	5	Mbuyiseni Ndlozi (University of Witwatersrand): The demise of radical reform unionism: The CWIU and the trade union strategy, 1987 - 1999
10h30-12h30	4: F	Development (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Contested development Chair: Roseline Munwang'o Achieng
	1	Fazel Khan (Durban University of Technology) , Sultan Khan (University of KwaZulu- Natal ) and Jay Govender ( Nelson Mandela M. University): The Rhetoric of Participation
	2	Sultan Khan (University of KwaZulu-Natal): Permeation of Technological, Logistical and Political Imperatives in the Planning of Sustainable Human settlements in KwaZulu-Natal
	3	Jacques de Wet (University of Cape Town): Asilufuni Uphuhliso Iwenu! Resistance to Imposed Development in Rural South Africa
	4	Theodore Petrus (Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University) : To win by any means necessary: Witchcraft and magic beliefs as anthropological issues in sport development
10h30-12h30	4: G	Methodology and social theory (Room No. 7) Theme: Chair:
	1	Grey Magaiza (University of the Free State): Neoliberalism, sports and consumption: A theoretical analysis of the (post-) capitalist reconfiguration of locality and marginality in the 21st Century
	2	De Wet Schutte (Cape Peninsula University of Technology): testing new data collection technology to assist with unlocking sensitive information - a collaborative study with Farr
12h30-13h30	Lunch	Working group conveners' meeting (Room:TBA) Editorial Board meeting of South African Review of Sociology: Meeting of editorial collective, regional

		editors, editorial board and international advisory committee (Room: TBA)
13h30-15h15	SPLIT SESSION 5: A – G
	5: A	Health (Room No. 2) Theme: Access to healthcare Chair:
	1	Abdullahi, Ali Arazeem ( University of Johannesburg): The National Health Insurance Scheme in Nigeria: Issues, problems and challenges
	2	N. Ernest Khalema( University of Calgary ): “Race Talk” and the Limitations of Quantitative Epidemiology: Canadian and Brazilian examples
	3	Penny Jaffray ( University of Fort Hare): Health and Citizenship: Rights and Obligations of Primary Health Care Service Users in the Eastern Cape
13h30-15h15	5: B	Social movements (Room No. 3) Theme: Democracy, participation and citizen agency Chair: Marcelle Dawson, University of Johannesburg
	1	Luke Sinwell (University of Johannesburg): Rethinking the Transition: From Transformative Possibilities to Mainstream Approaches to Participation in South Africa
	2	Meghan Cooper (International Institute of Social Studies): Citizenship in Social Movements: Constructing Alternatives in the Anti-Privatization Forum, South Africa
	3	Tawanda Nyawasha (University of Fort Hare): Anti-Globalisation Movements, Urban Protests and National Anger: Towards the Creation of a South African Civic Polity
	4	Alan Emery (California State University) and Donald Will (Chapman University): Liberation movements, universal citizenship and the resolution of ethnonational conflict: ANC nonracialism and the Israeli/Palestinian conflict
13h30-15h15	5: C	Crime, violence and security (Room No. 4) Theme: Crime and deviance Chair: Ian Liebenberg
	1	Lohandjola l’okaso Reagan (University of Kinshasha): Socio-historical context into quantitative comparative criminology
	2	Lauren Graham (University of Johannesburg): and Helene Perold (University of Johannesburg): Youth violence in the SADC region- lessons from five countries
13h30-15h15	5: D	Media, culture and society (Room No. 5) Theme: Soccer’s force: Sports, politics &amp; development Chair: Sonja Narunsky-Laden, University of Johannesburg
	1	Adeyinka Oladayo Bankole (Redeemer’s University): Sports fan clubs and the support for the English Premiership clubs as social movements in Nigeria
	2	Madelie Pretorius and Israel Mawoyo (University of Free State): The impact of the 2010 FIFA World Cup on South Africa, with special reference to marginalized and impoverished citizens living in rural communities
13h30-15h15	5: E	Economic and industrial sociology (Room No. 6) Theme: Labour market institutions and policy Chair: Olesegun O. Oladeinde, Rhodes University

	1	Andries Bezuidenhout and Soeren Jeppesen (University of Witwatersrand and Copenhagen Business School): The political economy of responsible trade: Labour codes of conduct and working conditions in Southern African garment factories
	2	Christine Bischoff and Kezia Lewins (University of the Witwatersrand): employment equity number crunching: the utility of national datasets as a mechanism for gauging post-apartheid redress
	3	Paul Lundall (University of Cape Town): Misconceived measures: the realignment and redefinition of skill formation institutions under a new South African ministry
	4	Tina Uys (University of Johannesburg): 'Protecting South African whistleblowers: Policy and practice'
	5	Jantjie Xaba (University of Stellenbosch): Labour broking and labour relation: Changing workplace terrain
13h30-15h15	5: F	Family and population studies (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Family and Household Chair: TBA
	1	Nothile Dlamini (University of Stellenbosch): Teenage pregnancy, not another way to put cash in the pocket. Or is it?
	2	Marie Van Driel (Khanya College): Patriarchy and authority in single black women-headed families
	3	Cecilia Schalekamp (University of Johannesburg): Gender, class and food: some results of a township survey
	4	Tsiliso Tamasane (Human Science Research Council): Factors motivating extended family care for orphans and vulnerable children in the era of HIV/AIDS in South Africa
	5	Mpiana Kalula (Cape Peninsula University of Technology): Examining consequences of HIV/AIDS on pensioner life within selected areas of South Africa
13h30-15h15	5: G	Higher education &amp; science studies (Room No. 5) Theme: Science studies in higher education Chair: Raji Matshedisho
	1	Michelle Joubert and Lorenzo Raynard (The South African Agency for Science and Technology advancement): An assessment of South African Tertiary students' relationship with science
	2	Lorenzo Raynard and Ina Ross (The South African Agency for Science and Technology advancement): Comics as a tool to communicate science, engineering and technology to tertiary students
15h15-15h45	Tea / coffee
15h45-17h30	SPLIT SESSION 6: A – F
	6: A	Health (Room No. 2) Theme: Empowerment and participation Chair:
	1	Hanlie Myburgh (University of Stellenbosch): Compliance through Empowerment? The Institutional Production of the 'Auto-governing' HIV-positive Subject

	2	Fernanda Pinto de Almeida (University of Stellenbosch): Bipolars and the trajectories of psychiatric diagnosis in South Africa: from mental patients to “responsible users.”
	3	Joyce Kimani (Egerton University): Factors influencing the frequency of teaching HIV/AIDS education in secondary schools: a case of Rachuonyo District, Kenya
	4	Lauren Graham, (Centre for Social Development in Africa (CSDA) at the University of Johannesburg (UJ): Poverty and Disability
15h45-17h30	6: B	Social movements (Room No. 3) Theme: Service delivery, ideology and marginalisation Chair: Luke Sinwell, University of Johannesburg
	1	Mervyn Reddy (Clairwood Ratepayers & Residents Association): Marginalised Communities and Service Delivery in Clairwood, Durban
	2	Lifu Nhlapo (Balfour community activist): Contradictions and Challenges: A Critical Analysis of Service Delivery Protests in Balfour and Beyond
	3	Peter Pfaffe (University of Johannesburg): Youths, Ideology and Politics of the ‘Service Delivery Protests’: The Case of Balfour
15h45-17h30	6: C	Family and population studies (Room No. 4) Theme: Youth Chair: Mpiana Kalula
	1	Lauren Graham (University of Johannesburg): Developing an asset-based research agenda for youth in Southern Africa
	2	Elsa Crause (University of Free State) and M. Booysen (University of Cape Town): Demographic tragedy or opportunity: Are macro issues necessitating a new social contract with youth in South Africa?
15h45-17h30	6: D	Higher education &amp; science studies (Room No.: 7) Theme: Transforming higher education Chair: Chupe Serote, University of the Witwatersrand
	1	Pragna Rugunanan and Marize Rabe (University of Johannesburg): “Where have all the men gone?”: An update on male academics leaving the social sciences
	2	Rajohane Matshedisho (University of the Witwatersrand): Introducing the student life cycle to disability support
	3	Kezia Lewins (University of the Witwatersrand): What the Soudien Report left out: Counting our way through transformation.
15h45-17h30	6: E	Media, culture and society (Room No. 6) Theme: Popular cultures: Critical perspectives on contemporary cultural forms Chair: Shireen Ally, University of the Witwatersrand
	1	Joey Kok (University of the Witwatersrand): The paradox at the heart of the Modern Understanding of celebrity: The case of Joost van der Westhuizen
	2	Sonja Narunsky-Laden (University of Johannesburg): Transformation Trivia: The cultural work of magazines for black South Africans
	3	Mokong Simon Mapadimeng (National Arts Council of South Africa): The Arts and their role in promotion of intercultural dialogue within the context of cultural diversity and globalization
	4	Irma du Plessis (University of the Witwatersrand): Short stories: Julius Malema and the weapons of the weak
15h45-17h30	6: F	Development (ICC Auditorium) Theme: Development, social change and corporate responsibility

		Chair: Jacques de Wet
	1
	2
	3
17h30-19h30	SASA AGM	ICC Auditorium
20h00-late	Congress Banquet	"The Venue" (Harbour)
Wednesday 16th June, 2010
08h00-09h30	SPLIT SESSION 7: A – B
	7: A	Media, culture and society (Room No. 2) Theme: Normative dimensions: Social practices and their moral logics Chair: Tina Uys, University of Johannesburg
	1	Milandree van Wyk (University of Stellenbosch): An Islamic connection: Male Muslim internet dating and perceptions of religious guilt
	2	Johnnie Tolkien (University of Stellenbosch): Perceptions of the social norm: The relationship between actual and perceived descriptive and injunctive norms of student drinking culture at Stellenbosch University
	3	Marisa Ellen Crous (University of Stellenbosch): A woman's sell-by-date: The experience of aging amongst middle-aged women in Stellenbosch
	4	Elizabeth Ashimana Nyager (University of Jos) : 'Kwagh-hir' Theatre as a recreational tool for social cohesion and development
08h00-09h30	7: B	Higher education &amp; science studies (Room No. 3) Theme: Profiling Biotechnology Chair: Kezia Lewins, University of Witwatersrand
	1	Lorenzo Raynard and Manjusha Joseph Sunil (The South African Agency for Science and Technology advancement): Human capital needs of the biotechnology sector in South Africa
	2	Michelle Joubert, Manjusha Joseph Sunil, Tracey Miller and Lorenzo Raynard (The South African Agency for Science and Technology advancement): Biotechnology in the South African media
	3	Kiran Odhar (University of the North West): Sports, Cultures and Institutes, Policy and Higher Education
09h30-11h00	Joint Working Group Session: Race, Ethnicity and Class AND Social Movements (ICC Auditorium) Film Screening and Discussion: ' Phakathi: Soweto's Middling Class' by Mosa Phadi Chair: TBA
11h00-11h30	Tea / coffee
11h30-13h30	PLENARY SESSION 3: Sports, migration and challenges for development in the era of globalisation ICC Auditorium Chair:
	1	Professor Michael Bourdillon, Professor Emeritus, Department of Sociology, University of Zimbabwe

		Title: A challenge for globalised thinking: where does children's work fit in with sport, leisure, and development?
	2	Prof Doreen Atkinson, Co-ordinator: Research Cluster on Sustainable Development and Poverty Reduction, University of the Free State. Title: The possible impacts of FIFA 2010 on non-host rural regions – on the Karoo.
	3	Professor Nicos Trimikliniotis, Director, Cyprus Labour Institute, Cyprus. Title: Migration, Integration and Development in the era of Globalisation: Dilemmas and Challenges for States, Labour Organisations and Social Movements
13h30-14h30	Lunch Departure	New SASA Council Meeting (Room No.TBA )