South African Review of Sociology
(previously Society in Transition)

Journal of the South African Sociological Association

Vol. 40, No.1 (2009)

ISSN 1028-9852

Contents

Location and Orientation: Introducing Indian Sociology
   Peter Alexander .............................................................. 1

Disjunctions between field, method and concept: An appraisal of M.N. Srinivas
   T.K. Oommen ............................................................... 13

Doing urban studies in India: The challenges
   Sujata Patel ................................................................. 31

Understanding Labour Dynamics in India
   Sharit K. Bhowmik ......................................................... 47

Permanent victims of violence: a sociological study of women victims of communal violence
   Arvinder A. Ansari ............................................................ 62

Imagining India: software and the ideology of liberalisation
   Carol Upadhya ............................................................... 76

Suicides and the making of India’s agrarian distress
   A.R. Vasavi .................................................................. 94

Social and environmental insecurities in Mumbai: Towards a sociological perspective on vulnerability
   D. Parthasarathy .............................................................. 109

Inclusion versus excellence: Caste and the framing of fair access in Indian higher education
   Satish Deshpande ........................................................... 127

Contributors ................................................................. 148

© Copyright 2009 by the South African Sociological Association. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any electronic, mechanical or other means without the prior written permission of the copyright holder.